

ALAN CHVOTKIN

Mr. Chvotkin joined PSC in November 2001 as senior vice president. He draws on his years of government and private sector procurement and business experience to facilitate congressional and executive branch knowledge of and interest in issues facing PSC's membership. Previously, he was the AT&T vice president, large procurements and state and local government markets. Earlier at AT&T, he was vice president, business management. From 1986 to 1995, he was corporate director of government relations and senior counsel at Sundstrand Corporation. Mr. Chvotkin also was a founding member of industry's Acquisition Reform Working Group.

Before joining Sundstrand, Mr. Chvotkin spent more than a dozen years working for the U.S. Senate. He first served as professional staff to the Senate Budget Committee and later to the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee. He became counsel and staff director to the Senate Small Business Committee, and then counsel to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

He is a member of the Supreme Court, American and District of Columbia Bar Associations. He is also a member of the National Contract Management Association and serves on its national board of advisors and as a "Fellow" of the organization. Alan is also a "Fed 100" winner. He has a law degree from The American University's Washington College of Law, a master's in public administration and a bachelor's in political science.
